

Nostradamus' Predictions for 2021 Aren't Pretty: Asteroids, Earthquakes, Plague and More

Let me start with the obvious, TAKE THIS WITH A GRAIN OF SALT - We can't seem to get away from Nostradamus predictions, even after 2012 when the world didn't actually end. We also can't seem to shake bad news. While some astrologers are predicting a somewhat hopeful future beginning in the new year, if you choose to believe in Nostradamus, you better put on your seatbelt.

Nostradamus was born in Saint Rémy de Provence, southern France, on December 14th of 1503, and he was a famous French physician, cabalist, and pharmacist, best known for his book Les Prophéties, its first edition published in 1555.

Nostradamus' prophecies are expressed in verses, called quatrains. Many of his predictions, such as the rise to power of Adolf Hitler, and the Second World War, turned out to be accurate.

Nostradamus had written 6338 prophecies, many of them fulfilled. His prophecies cover a period reaching the year 3797. The secret of his predictions is not known.

Nostradamus' quatrains continue to fascinate the world, although they were written almost five centuries ago.

Over 70% of his prophecies have fulfilled so far, and some of the most dreadful predictions are for the year 2021.

Here are some of Nostradamus' predictions for 2021:

1. Zombie Apocalypse A Russian scientist will create a biological weapon and produce a virus that can turn humankind into zombies, and we will all be extinct in the near future.

"Few young people: half-dead to give a start. Dead through spite, he will cause the others to shine, And in an exalted place some great evils to occur: Sad concepts will come to harm each one, Temporal dignified, the Mass to succeed. Fathers and mothers dead of infinite sorrows, Women in mourning, the pestilent she-monster: The Great One to be no more, all the world to end."

2. A Famine of Biblical Proportions Nostradamus predicted that the first signs of the end of the world would be famine, earthquakes, different illnesses, and epidemics, which are already happening more frequently.

The Coronavirus pandemic from 2020 represents the beginning of a series of unfavorable events, which will affect the world's population.

The famine that lurks is one the world had never faced before. A catastrophe of huge proportions will throw us back in history, and a great part of the world population will not be able to overcome this curse.

"After great trouble for humanity, a greater one is prepared, The Great Mover renews the ages: Rain, blood, milk, famine, steel, and plague, Is the heavens fire seen, a long spark running."

Starting from 2020, after 248 years, Saturn in Capricorn united its forces with Pluto, which is also in Capricorn, in the remarkable conjunction that will change the fate of the world.

Saturn in Capricorn is responsible for social hierarchies, state power, authority, functions, and status, and this is what the conjunction with Pluto, the planet of death, destruction, and reconstruction triggered.

3. The Muslims will lead the world "In the Danube and of the Rhine will come to drink The great Camel, not repenting it: Those of the Rhone to tremble, and much more so those of the Loire, And near the Alps,

the Cock will ruin him.’

The “camel” is the Arab population that lives all over Europe, especially in France and Germany, or the wave of immigrants that is currently at the door of our continent.

Also, the demography experts warn that the Muslims will conquer the EU in the next decades without having to fire a single gun.

On the one hand, due to the great number of Muslim immigrants and refugees and, on the other hand, due to Europeans having fewer and fewer children.

“Because of French discord and negligence An opening shall be given to the Mohammedans. The land and sea of Siena will be soaked in blood, And the port of Marseilles covered with ships and sails.”

4. Solar Storms 2021 will be quite a significant year in terms of major global events. Great solar storms will take place, which could cause some major damages to the earth.

Nostradamus supposedly warned: „We shall see the water rising and the earth falling under it”.

The harmful effects of the climatic changes will then lead to many wars and conflicts, as the world will fight over resources, and mass migration will follow.

5. A Comet will hit the Earth or it will come very close to Terra This event will cause earthquakes and other natural disasters, which can be concluded from the quatrain: “In the sky, one sees fire and a long trail of sparks”.

Other interpretations of this quatrain assert that it refers to a great asteroid that will hit the Earth.

Once it enters the Earth’s atmosphere, the asteroid will heat up, appearing in the sky like a great fire.

NASA announced that a huge asteroid is likely to hit the Earth in the next years after the American agency emits alerts daily, only this time, it is something more serious.

An asteroid called 2009 KF1 has chances to hit the Earth on May 6th of 2021, the NASA coming to this conclusion, following analyzes regarding its trajectory.

NASA claims that this asteroid has the power to hit the Earth with the equivalent of 230 kilotons of TNT explosive force, which means 15 times more than the nuclear bomb detonated by Americans over Hiroshima in 1945.

6. A Devastating Earthquake Will Destroy California According to the interpretation of a quatrain written by Nostradamus, an extremely powerful seism will destroy California in 2021.

Nostradamus predicts that a great earthquake will hit the New World (“the western lands”), and California is the logical place where it might happen.

According to the astrologers, “Mercury in Sagittarius, Saturn fading”, the following date when the planets Mars and Saturn will be in this position on the sky will be on November 25th of 2021.

“The sloping park, great calamity, Through the Lands of the West and Lombardy The fire in the ship, plague, and captivity; Mercury in Sagittarius, Saturn fading.”

7. The American Soldiers Will Have Brain Chip Implants The American soldiers will be turned into a kind of cyborgs, at least at the brain level, to save the human race.

This chip should offer us the necessary digital intelligence to progress beyond the limits of biological intelligence.

This could mean that we will incorporate artificial intelligence into our bodies and brains.

“The newly made one will lead the army, Almost cut off up to near the bank: Help from the Milanais elite straining, The Duke deprived of his eyes in Milan in an iron cage.”
